This Week's Blog - Another Busy Week at PYC!

The week began on a quiet note as the Six Nations tournament kicked off on Thursday. But by Sunday, the clubhouse was buzzing. Members gathered to watch the games, enjoy a drink, and soak up the lively atmosphere. Sunday brought even more excitement, as fishing match days and entertainment came together for a truly memorable day.

Our fishing match kept the early risers busy with a match on the beach at midday, followed later by a brilliantly supported raffle. And of course, Adrian Fraser, whose energy and enthusiasm kept us all on our toes throughout the afternoon!

After each band night you may have notice that the Committee runs a poll to gauge member engagement which help to inform future decisions. Polls are conducted for band events only, as these incur costs to the club.

UNWELCOME VISITOR! We had an intruder in the boat yard on Friday night. Please keep boats empty. The police have been informed.

This week....

🎲 Friday Night Fun – Hosted by our very own Keith!

No winners this week – so roll on Friday, come down for a chance to win

🏈 Saturday – Rugby

With a slow start on Thursday, it certainly improved by Saturday. England are on form. If I do say so myself.

🎣 Sunday – started with a Fishing Beach Match

Jack, Barry, Glen and Peter out on Wednesday. Roy caught the winner on the Saturdays match.

...Then we had Carole's Raffle (held every Sunday – so don't miss it.)

Our very own “Win again Ken” was true to his word and won, not once, not twice but three times! Will Ken let anyone win next week is the question? Thanks Carole and helpers.

... To finish off Sunday Afternoon

As the evening gathered pace and the clubhouse filled with laughter and conversation, Adrian Fraser took to the floor and had the club in full swing. He kept everyone entertained throughout the afternoon.

Sailing

The sailing season will be getting underway in April, and we're very much looking forward to seeing boats back on the water and members out enjoying the seas again.

Bar

Meantime is still on tap

A member recently asked us “why don’t we do the Schweppes in cans?” The bar committee had a look into it and it’s a win win for the club. So, you’ll be seeing cans appearing over the next few weeks. As they are slightly smaller than the bottles the prices will be adjusted accordingly.

While the bar is open the committee would like to remind our members that like any other social or drinking establishment, only drinks purchased at the bar can be consumed in the club.

Membership Renewals

It’s that time of year again – membership renewals are due before the 1st March 2026
